

Ukulele 101

The songs in this book are arranged for ukuleles in C tuning. In this tuning, the individual strings from the top (closest to your nose) to bottom (closest to your toes) are tuned GCEA.

Uke C Tuning

One easy way to tune a ukulele is with a pitchpipe or electronic tuner matching the strings with the notes.

This corresponds to that famous melody:

Here are the notes on the piano:

Keeping In Tune

Most ukuleles have friction tuners that include a small screw at the end of the tuner. The secret to staying in tune is to keep these screws tight enough so that the tuners don't slip, but loose enough that the tuners still turn.

You make chords by putting various combinations of fingers on the fretboard. In this songbook, you'll find chord diagrams that show where to put your fingers to make the right sound. The vertical lines in the diagrams represent strings and the horizontal lines represent the frets. The numbers at the bottom of the chords shown below indicate what fingers to use.

Remember to:

1. When pressing down the strings, use the tips of your fingers.
2. Always press down in the space between the frets, not on them.
3. Press the strings down to the fretboard. If you hear a buzz it may be because you are not pressing hard enough or are too close to a fret.
4. Keep your thumb at the back of the neck, parallel to the frets.

Making The Strums

The Common Strum: This is the most basic up/down strum. It can be produced solely with your index finger going down the strings with the fingernail and up with the cushion of your fingertip. You can also try this with the pad of your thumb running down the strings and the tip of your index finger going up. This strum will work fine on many of the songs in this book. Two good examples would be "April Showers" and "Tip-Toe Thru' The Tulips With Me."

Waltz Strum: This 3/4 rhythm can be produced simply with your thumb or index finger in sets of three down strums. You can use this on 3/4 songs like "Morning Has Broken" and "Somewhere My Love."

Island Strum: This lilting, syncopated strum is a combination of quick up and down strums plus a roll. In a typical 4-beat measure it would look like this:

□ = downstroke

▽ = upstroke

□ roll ▽ □ ▽

Here's how to make the roll strum.

One and Two and Three and Four and...

Play the downstroke with your thumb and the upstroke with your index finger. The roll is made by running the ring, middle and index fingers quickly in succession across the strings. You can also substitute a downstroke for the roll if that is easier. Variations of this handy strum can be used on songs like "Anticipation," "The Banana Boat Song," "Black Magic Woman" and countless others in the book.

Tremolo: This is used often as an ending flourish for a song. It's produced by running your index finger across the strings rapidly. Try this at the end of any song where you want a "big finish." 2

Grandma Got Run Over By A Reindeer - Randy Brooks 1979

(Chorus)

[C]Grandma got run over by a reindeer
Walking home from our house Christmas [F]Eve.
You can say, "There's no such thing as [C]Santa."
But [F]as for me and [G]Grandpa, we be[C]lieve!

Am

[Am]She'd been drinking too much [G]eggnog
And we warned her not to [C]go.
But she forgot her medi[F]cation
And she wan[C]dered out the [G]door into the [C]snow.

C

[Am]When we found her Christmas [G]morning
At the scene of the at[C]tack,
There were hoofprints on her [F]forehead
And in[C]criminating [G] Claus marks on her [C]back

F

(Chorus)

[Am]Now we're all so proud of [G]Grandpa.
He's been taking this so [C]well.
See him in there watching [F]football,
Drinking [C]beer and playing [G]cards with cousin [C]Mel.

G

[Am]It's not Christmas without [G]Grandma.
All the family's dressed in [C]black.
And we just can't help but [F]wonder,
Should we [C]open up her gifts or [G]send them [C]back? SEND THEM BACK!!

(Chorus)

[Am]Now the goose is on the [G]table
And the pudding made of [C]fig
And the blue and silver [F]candles
That would [C]just have matched the [G]hair in Grandma's [C]wig.

[Am]I've warned all my friends and [G]neighbors.
Better watch out for your[C]selves.
They should never give a [F]license
To a man who [C]drives a sleigh and [G]plays with [C]elf's!

Sing It Grandpa!!

SILVER BELLS

3/4 123 12 (without intro)

Intro: First 2 lines

City sidewalks, busy sidewalks, dressed in holiday style,

In the air there's a feeling of Christmas.

Children laughing, people passing, meeting smile after smile,

And on ev'ry street corner you hear:

Silver bells,

silver bells,

it's Christmas time in the city.

Ringaling,

hear them ring,

soon it will be Christmas day.

Strings of street lights, even stop lights, blink a bright red and green,

As the shoppers rush home with their treasures.

Hear the snow crunch, see the kids bunch, this is Santa's big scene,

And above all this bustle you hear:

Silver bells,

silver bells,

it's Christmas time in the city.

Ringaling,

hear them ring,

soon it will be Christmas day.
